1. Mailing List

All aedGUI developers and users should be subscribed to the aedgui-developers list. If you want to be updated on everything related to aedGUI, this is the place to be!

More information, click here.

Note:

Don't worry, this is not a high-bandwidth list.

2. IRC Channel

Currently we use an IRC chat room to have live discussions. If you wish to join in, or just want to meet some of the crew, this is the place to be. The chat room is hosted on one of the openprojects.net servers.

We can be found on irc.freenode.net, channel #aedgui.
